

PRISMA ELECTRONICS SA is an innovative, high technology company that was established in 1991 in, Greece. Throughout a consistent and continuous effort, the company engaged in a wide range of activities in the field of Electronics, Space, Defense, Information Technology, Telecommunications and Energy. With present in Alexandroupolis (HQ and Factory), Athens (R&D and Sales Department) and London (International Sales).

Production Support Staff (Job Code: PSS-2500)

Main responsibilities:

- Support of the production process
- Operation of production machinery (after training)
- Compliance with production procedures
- Direct cooperation with the Production Manager in order to achieve smooth and timely completion of the production

Essential Qualifications:

- Diploma or Degree of all levels, regardless of subject matter
- Responsibility, hardworking, professionalism, perception and teamwork
- Required for men to fulfill military obligations

Desirable Qualifications:

- Knowledge of English
- Computer skills
- Ability to work in shifts

Skills to be considered (desirable, not essential):

- Basic knowledge of electronics, at the hardware and circuit level
- Previous experience, if any

Offered:

- Full-time employment with a competitive compensation package based on qualifications
- Full insurance coverage
- Ongoing training and professional development
- A modern and well-organized working environment

